Select desired configuration: ie . . #4= Double door left hand outswing

To determine the handing and swing of your existing door;

- Open your door and place your back against the hinges
- If the door opens to your left and inside= left hand inswing
- If the door opens to your left and outside= left hand outswing
- If the door opens to your right and inside= right hand inswing
- If the door opens to your right and outside= right hand outswing
